PRESIDENT'S COLUMN...

Adele Druck, 1st Vice President, and I attended a special Friends of Library reception for the new City Librarian of the Los Angeles Public Library, held in the Rare Books Room of the Central Library downtown. Mr. Martin Gomez spoke about the challenges facing the Library - and Adele will report on that at our Annual Membership Meeting. Please plan to join us on November 18. Special Treat will be our speaker - our in-house historian, Bruce Keswick.

Also, at our Annual Membership Meeting on Nov. 18, I will present my President's report for 2009 covering our gifts to the Library and our activities. My report will be summarized on our website and printed in our next Newsletter too. Until then, know that the Friends have made a BIG difference in the number of current books available to you, our Library patrons, and in the rest of the collection for adults, teens, and children, in programming, furniture and furnishings, and supplies. Know also, that it is your continuing memberships, donations, and support of our Bookstore and Book Sales that have allowed us to help fund our Library. The result is that our branch library's collection and services continue to be the best! THANK YOU!

Finally, I'd like to say a big THANK YOU to our officers for serving so beautifully these past two years, and for agreeing to continue for another two years (see their names in the article on page 4). THANK YOU too to our Committee Chair: Book Clubs - Carol Fox; Communications/Telephone: Lois Levy; Hospitality - Judy Cohn; Membership - Jenny Lapidus; Program - Linda Grose; Publicity/Outreach - Gisela Sehnert; Volunteer Appreciation - Richard Kazie; Webmaster - Judy Russell. And also, special thanks to our former Senior Librarian Melissa Potter (now heading the Silver Lake Branch), who worked with us for most of our term of office.

Welcome to our new Senior Librarian Interviewed by Adele Druck, First Vice President

By now many of you have met Michele Raeburn, our new Senior Librarian. With the departure of Melissa Potter for the new Silver Lake branch library, Michele has been appointed Acting Branch Manager.

Michele has been in the Los Angeles Public Library system for 28 years and has worked in all the branches in the San Fernando Valley at one time or another; she has also worked at the Glendale Branch and Central libraries. Her original career choice was to be a teacher, but when there were no teaching jobs available she followed her father's suggestion and went to library school.

One of her biggest challenges and most interesting experiences was to work on the computerization of the library's collection and to supervise the bar coding of the hundreds of thousands of books for all branches. Michele explains that the Los Angeles system is the largest computerized public library in the country. She says that the computerized library is a great advantage for the staff, and for some patrons; however there are still many who have always looked to the librarians for assistance and continue to do so.

Michele says she is an old fashioned page-turning book reader, not too interested in recorded books or in trying out one of the new electronic books like the Kindle. She says older people who were raised to be readers may have become dinosaurs in our time while young people who read fewer books have advantages and access to information through computers and do their reading online.

Michele was very complimentary about the Friends and pleased to have "so many good people interested in the branch and willing to work." She says that money raised by the Friends to supplement the budget has resulted in one of the best collections of any branch.

The Friends welcome Michele and look forward to working together with her.

OUR BOOK CLUBS

Our two Book Clubs are growing. New members are always welcome - contact Book Club Chair Carol Fox at bookclubs@ETLibraryFriends.org. For previous readings, check our Book Club webpage: <http://www.etlibraryfriends.org/3bookclubs.html>

PAGE TURNERS BOOK CLUB -- We select fiction and nonfiction books of interest, take turns serving as discussion leaders, and share interesting insights. We meet the first Thursday of the month at 7:00 pm at an Encino home. Since mid-year 2009, we've read: The Book Thief by Markus Zusak; Dreams From My Father by Barack Obama; March by Geraldine Brooks; Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society by Mary Ann Shaffer and Annie Barrows. Ahead are these: Nov. 5 - Sweet and Low: A Family Story, by Rich Cohen; Jan. 7 - Shadow of the Wind by Carlos Ruiz Zafon; Feb. 4 - Sashenka by Simon Sebag Montefiore.

HISTORY AND POLITICS BOOK CLUB -- We are learning American history through the study of the presidency. We started from the beginning and are now reading about Abraham Lincoln. Each member selects his/her own book on the current topic and shares the reading with the other members. This provides for a lively discussion coming from various authors' viewpoints.

Bruce Keswick, an attorney and history buff, is our discussion leader. We meet in the Library on the 4th Wednesday of the month - 4:00-5:30 pm. (3rd Wed. in Nov. & Dec.) On Oct. 28, we covered Pres. JANE'S BOOKS

WHO SHOPS AT THE LIBRARY'S FRIENDS USED BOOKSTORE?

ANSWER: just about any and everyone! In the last few months some of my customers have been:

TEACHERS finding treasured gems for their classroom collections.

A SMART SHOPPER who comes in every few months. He came in recently looking for pristine cookbooks (plans to give each of his friends a cookbook or other treasure for Christmas).

A MINISTER FROM OUT-OF-STATE, who was delighted to find just what he needed in our religious section to spice up his sermons with interesting tidbits.

A VERY LITTLE BOY buying a quarter children's book to give to his littler sister for her birthday.

A TEENAGER needing a Classic book for an extra-credit book report at school.

A WOMAN with a list of her favorite authors' books, trying to fill in the missing gaps in her collection (found quite a few too).

ANOTHER CUSTOMER -- WHO HAS A LONG COMMUTE -- comes in regularly to buy Audio Books.

AN ACTOR who buys books of plays and practices his craft at home with them .

BARGAIN HUNTERS who like our thrifty prices and wide selection. Etc, etc etc.

Yes, our used-book store is there for your pleasure and benefit. Which brings up another important subject. We could use more Volunteers to help in the store:

WHO VOLUNTEERS IN OUR BOOKSTORE?

PEOPLE WHO LOVE BOOKS, enjoy getting out, meeting people and have some spare time. If that sounds like you, perhaps you'd like to join us? Sure could use your talents and help.

'Til next time,

Jane Gebers

[Editor's note: Jane is one of our main Bookstore volunteers and Member-at-Large, and an avid reader.

GIFT FROM THE COMMUNITY TO THE LIBRARY

Encino Neighborhood Council donated security locking music CD cases and accompanying insert trays.

CURIOUS? HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED...?

Jenny Lapidus (our Membership Chair) had some great questions about the Los Angeles Public Library - and specifically our Encino-Tarzana Branch. Thought we'd share the answers provided by Michele Raeburn, our Acting Branch Manager:

JENNY: WHEN A BOOK IS PLACED ON HOLD, HOW DOES IT GET TO OUR LIBRARY?

MICHELE: When you place a book on hold, your library card number goes at the end of the Holds list of card numbers for that title. A new book that has many holds doesn't even reach the branch that purchased it until all the library patrons on the holds list for that title throughout the city have obtained a copy of that book. THEN, we receive the book that we ordered, but not before. The Holds Management Dept. at the Central Library downtown coordinates the Holds procedures and resolves any problems that occur, not the individual branches.

JENNY: HOW MUCH MONEY IS COLLECTED FROM OVERDUE BOOKS IN A MONTH?

MICHELE: I have no system-wide figures on how much money is collected just from overdue item fines - each day, month, or year! Those monies are included with lost book fines, library card replacement fees, copy machine and printer payments, and a myriad of other monies collected each day, all of which go to the Library's Business and Accounting Depts. at Central Library downtown.

JENNY: WHO KEEPS THE LIBRARY COMPUTERS RUNNING?

MICHELE: There is a cadre of trained computer techs who rove from branch to branch repairing, refurbishing, and maintaining the thousand-some computer terminals in each region. They work in tandem with the Information Technology Dept. and the Information Technologies & Collections Administration Dept. to make sure all terminals all over the City are working with the system servers properly, that the servers (located downtown) are working correctly and are updated regularly. They also answer the hundreds of questions and problem calls from staff at 72 branches and Central Library daily.

JENNY: HOW MANY VOLUMES IN OUR ENCINO-TARZANA BRANCH LIBRARY?

MICHELE: We have around 64,000 items in the Encino-Tarzana Branch collection; that includes books, audiotapes, CDs, DVDs, videos, comic books, graphic novels, et al.

JENNY: DOES ENCINO-TARZANA BRANCH HAVE A CERTAIN TYPE OF COLLECTION THAT OTHER LIBRARIES DO NOT HAVE?

MICHELE: Each branch is allowed to own a special collection or several, depending on:

- the local need for that type of collection
- the staff needed to maintain it,
- the Library funds required and available to maintain and update it,
- and, of course, the space available in the branch to adequately house the collection.

The Encino-Tarzana Branch has several special language collections: Russian, Spanish, and Persian. And, the most unique collection of anywhere in the country, is the Edgar Rice Burroughs Collection of books (including those focusing on "Tarzan"), which was donated by the Burroughs family and Edgar Rice Burroughs Corporation.

Karsh 100: A Biography In Images

August 2, 2009 - January 23, 2010
Central Library – First Floor Galleries

In celebration of the 100th birthday of renowned photographer Yousuf Karsh (1908-2002), the Los Angeles Public Library and Library Foundation of Los Angeles are hosting an exhibition of the great portraitist's work. The selected images offer a visual biography of this twentieth-century legend.

Karsh made a career photographing the world's most distinguished statesmen, artists, literary figures, musicians, scientists, actors, and actresses. Traveling the globe, he gained access to virtually every great figure of his time. Among his most famous iconic images are the ones he made of Winston Churchill (1941), Albert Einstein (1948), Pablo Picasso (1954), Ernest Hemingway (1957), Jacqueline Kennedy (1957) and Sophia Loren (1981).

This exhibition explores the eminent photographer's celebrated works alongside his lesser-known images. Included are photographs from his early years as he was developing his photographic style as well as works he made on assignment in the 1950s after he became widely known - views of Canada for Maclean's Magazine and images of industry for Ford of Canada and Atlas Steel. Archival material revealing Karsh's personality, his approach to his work, and the friendships he forged with sitters is also included, as well as prints from his large format camera.

This exhibition was organized by the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

SOME WEB NEWS ABOUT THE LIBRARY WORLD

Excerpt Source: American Libraries Direct, an e-newsletter of the American Library Association.

"...National Security Letters Reform Act of 2009 – which are critical for protecting Americans against government invasion of privacy and, generally, for restoring critical checks and balances to our government. Notably, the bill would allow Americans to use libraries and bookstores without fear that their choice of books will be monitored by overzealous federal agents." "BookServer: A Plan to Build an Open Web of Books. The Internet Archive has just unveiled their ambitious project called BookServer, which will allow users to find, buy, or borrow digital books from sources all across the web. The system, built on an open architecture and using open book formats, promises that the books housed there will work on any device whether that's a laptop, PC, smartphone, game console, or one of the myriad of e-Readers like Amazon's Kindle. The project's lofty goal is to essentially create an open web of books where anyone can publish their books and make their content available via search." (ReadWriteWeb, 10/20/09)
